

No-Till Field Day

August 27th, 2008

Beck Ag Center
Located at: Purdue Agronomy Center for Research & Education
4540 U.S. 52 West
West Lafayette, IN 47906

Thinking about transitioning to no-till, are in the process of transitioning, or are an experienced no-till farmer?

Come Join Us! This field day is for you!

Renowned experts and experienced producers will be presenting each session!

Equipment Demonstrations!

Date: August 27th, 2008
Time: 8:30 AM to 2:30 PM
Location: Beck Ag Center
Cost: Free and Lunch is provided!

Registration is Required

Please register by contacting the Carroll County SWCD @ (765) 564-4480 ext. 3 before August 22, 2008.

Other Topics Include:

- Economics of No-Till: A Local Perspective
- Nutrient/Nitrogen Management
- Sprayer Nozzles & Equipment Considerations
- Weed Control & Wellhead Protection
- Soil Quality/Fertility and Cover Crops
- CEUs for CCAs have been requested

PARP Credits!

This field day is brought to you by the Carroll, Clinton, Howard, & Tippecanoe County Soil & Water Conservation Districts, the Greater Wabash River Resource Conservation & Development Council, the Natural Resources Conservation Service, and Purdue Cooperative Extension. Funding is provided by an Indiana State Department of Agriculture Clean Water Indiana Grant and our generous sponsors.

SPONSORS

