

Township Government in Carroll County: What Are the Options?

September 21, 2011

7:00-9:00 PM

Wabash & Erie Canal

Everyone is invited!

This second forum will continue the discussion about township government and what the citizens of Carroll County want its future local government to be.

A panel of local and regional elected officials will address questions about options for Township Government.

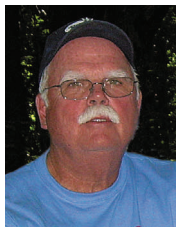

What are the trade-offs between elimination, reform and keeping the existing system of government in Carroll County?

Panel Participants will include:

Al Jackson, Burlington Township Trustee of Carroll County

Ann Brown, Carroll County Council

Jean Lushin, Center Township Trustee of Howard County

Jean Paul Lushin has been the Center Township Trustee for 29 years and is a two term President of the Indiana Township Association as well as the Association's Legislative Chairman for 15 years.

Mr. Lushin is a leader involved with an effort in Howard County to reform Township Government utilizing consolidation efforts.

Township Government Forums are Sponsored by:

Carroll County Focus on the Future,
Carroll County Chamber of Commerce, and Leadership Carroll County

For more information, contact the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce office at:
765-564-6757 or go to: www.focus-on-the-future.org for copies of the 2007 report and other materials.