

January 24, 2011

Dear Pork Producer,

The Indiana Pork Producers Association is hosting a lunch meeting for pork producers in Flora on February 3rd at 12:00pm. We would like to update you on our activities, local/state/federal issues and field any of your questions. Depending on his schedule, Greg Slipher, the Livestock Development Specialist for Indiana Farm Bureau will also be attending.

The restaurant is called Flora's Family Restaurant, and is located at 206 North Sycamore Street in Flora, IN. Please RSVP by calling 317-872-7500 or emailing me at jtrenary@inpork.org, although walk ins are also welcome. I hope to see you all there. However, if this date or location is not convenient, please take a look at the meeting list on the reverse side of this letter for a more convenient date or location.

Sincerely,

Josh Trenary
Director of Business Development
Indiana Pork

Greg Slipher
Livestock Development Specialist
Indiana Farm Bureau